

Lockout/Tagout Quiz Answer Key

Name:
Trainer's Name:
Company/Division:		Date:

Directions: Read each statement carefully and circle the response that best answers the question.

1. Lockout/tagout is required anytime someone needs to remove or bypass a guard or when an employee needs to place his or her hand or other body part into a machine's point of operation:
a. True
b. False

2. OSHA's lockout/tagout standard requires employers to have all of the following except:
a. Written lockout/tagout procedures
b. Employees who are trained in the lockout/tagout procedures
c. Periodic inspections of the lockout/tagout procedures
d. A competent person as the Program Administrator

3. Employees who are responsible for initiating the lockout/tagout process and who physically apply locks and tags to the machines being repaired or serviced are called:
a. Affected employees
b. Authorized employees
c. Plant managers
d. Other employees e.

4. Lockout/tagout is required anytime you might be at risk for injury from the unexpected release of hazardous energy while servicing equipment, which would include:
a. Constructing
b. Inspecting
c. Installing
d. All of the above

5. Which of the following is considered an energy-isolating device?
- a. Toggle switch
 - b. Machine block
 - c. Push button
 - d. Emergency stop
6. The lockout/tagout standard considers all of the following as forms of hazardous energy except:
- a. Steam
 - b. Electrical
 - c. Automation
 - d. Pneumatic
7. OSHA requires that locks used to lock out machines being serviced or repaired are:
- a. Large enough so a tag can be applied to it
 - b. Able to contain a clearly-worded warning
 - c. Durable
 - d. Both A and B are correct
8. Affected employees are individuals who may spend some of their work day in areas where machines are being serviced or repaired, but they do not operate the machines.
- a. True
 - b. False
 - c.
9. Locks used to lock out a machine must be provided by:
- a. Your employer
 - b. You
 - c. The affected employee performing the service work
 - d. A licensed lock manufacturer
10. Before putting your hands or other body parts into a machine you're about to service, all stored energy must be released, which would include:
- a. Bleeding off air pressure
 - b. Draining lines
 - a. Letting the machine cool down
 - b. All of the above

